English Learning - Text(s): Astro Girl by Ken Wilson-Max

Lesson 2

LO: I can use adjectives to describe a noun.

Begin listening to the story, Astro Girl. Here is a link for you to watch.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=mhxcSX-GZgso>

Listen to the story up to 'Of course I will, Jakey'

Talk to an adult

1. Why do you think the children are lying on their backs?
2. What do you think is going through their heads?

Activity:

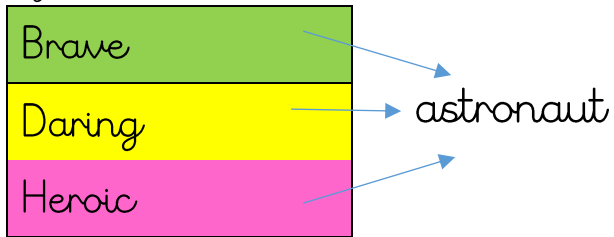

(2Do - English lesson 2)

Astrid might be thinking....'I want to be a brave astronaut and see the bright stars.'

What words (adjectives) could she use instead of brave and bright?

Adjectives help us describe or give more information about a noun.

E.g.

Look at these pictures. What clues can you see that Astrid loves space?

Talk to an adult

What does Astrid and her Papa do and which items in the pictures help us to understand just how much Astrid loves the idea of space-travel?

Activity

Using the clues from the story, you are going to write a set of instructions on how to be an astronaut. You will need to use 'bossy' or imperative verbs to help you. Watch this video about bossy/ imperative verbs.

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/topics/zrqqtfr/articles/z8strwx>

E.g.

Eat space hoops for breakfast.

Get used to zero gravity.

Spin round and round.

Can you see the imperative verb in each of these sentences?

Write your own set of instructions for how to be an astronaut. You can use some of the ideas here or come up with your own. Don't forget to include your imperative verbs!

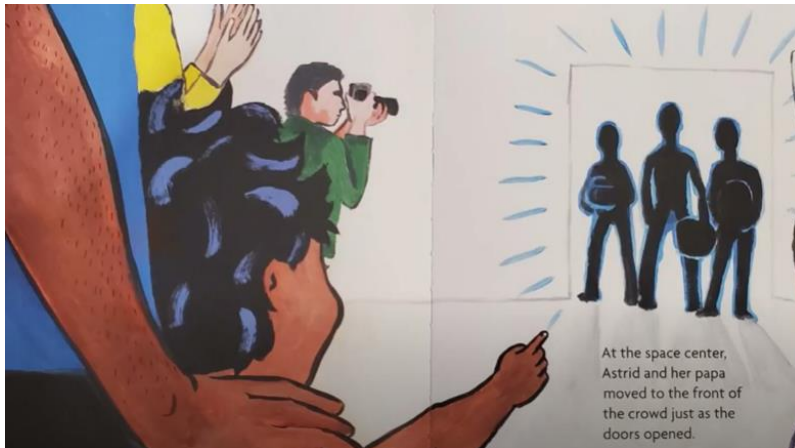

Save your work in your online file as Astro Girl lesson 3.

LO: I can use a question mark in the right place.

Watch up until 'just before the doors opened' 1:57.

Lesson 4

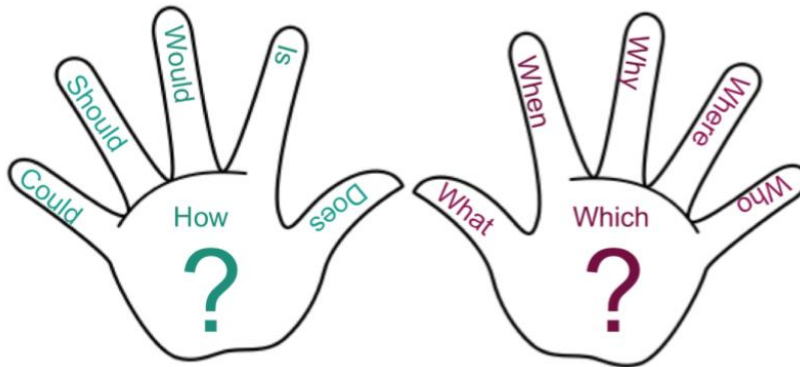

What sort of questions could you ask to find out what might happen next? Try to come up with questions that start with different words E.g.

Why are they at the airbase?

Who are the people in the doorway?

Talk to the Hand

Activity:
