English Learning - Text(s): Billy and the Beast by Nadia Shireen

Lesson 10

LO: I know the rules for adding 's' and 'es' for plurals.

If we have one of something it is called 'singular'

If we have two or more of something it is called 'plural'

Sometimes, when we have more than one of something, the spelling can change.

E.G. There is one dog.

There are two dogs.

Do you notice what is different?

Lesson 11

LO: I can plan using a story mountain.

Today you are going to write your own story based on Billy and the Beast about a child with big hair who defeats a terrible beast.

You all should be familiar with a story mountain as we have used this before.

E.g.

You need to think about details such as:

Who your main character is

Which animal is your sidekick?

How do they move through the forest

	What animals do they say hello to? What does your beast look like? What is the beast is cooking? How does the child become a hero? What things do they find in their hair to save the animals?

How do they enter the forest and who do they meet?</li> </ol> Talk to an adult about how your story may start. Activity: (2Do - English lesson 12) Here is an example of how your story could start: Wendy was a quiet girl but she had a huge secret that only her best friend, the rabbit, knew. Rabbit had sworn to keep her secret and this brought the two friends even closer together. Everyday they would stroll through the forest outside their town and play games together. They just loved to chase each other and roll in the mud beneath the trees! Little did they know, today would be different than most days. As they skipped deeper into the forest, they met a lovely squirrel. Complete the 2Do for writing your story introduction. Save your work in your online file as English lesson 12.
