

Black History Month

To celebrate Black History Month, each class focussed on a significant black individual from a book called Young, Gifted and Black by Jamia Wilson. Examples of these people included Rosa Parks, Martin Luther King, Nelson Mandela and Maya Angelou. The children produced posters, leaflets and fact files as well as taking part in drama activities. As a whole school, we participated in Wear Red Day as part of the Show Racism the Red Card initiative. Every child was invited to come to school dressed in an item of red clothing and during the day, focussed on discussions involving racism and how we, as a school, can prevent this from happening and raise awareness.
